www.trhc-llc.com

Over the past four decades, TRHC has worked with multiple owners on unique developments. This has given us an opportunity to build a wide array of project types.

We build conventionally financed luxury apartments for higher income individuals/families that do not have income or age restrictions.

Whether the development is market rate, affordable, historic preservation, permanent supportive housing, mixed-use, or brownfield redevelopment, we have the experience to meet the needs of our clients.
